

With a host of companies already applying for long-distance telephony licences, and telcos n

The flip side is that this will also play havoc with the industry. For one, the new lifetime-incomin

This, of course, will also create another problem as far as the current fight for spectrum (or the

Another issue that has the potential to spike the party is the power of the regulator to discipline

An interesting twist to this is a story in a recent issue of BusinessWeek which reports on the ne

Another serious area of concern is the lack of action on the Rs 5,000 crore annual access defici

In a nutshell, the government's ability to influence the party, and to play favourites, hasn't dimi